Can I share my username and password with anyone else?

Sharing your internet subscription details with anyone else other than our helpdesk is prohibited and can lead to problems or even the permanent cancellation of your subscription!

You are also always personally liable for what happens with your account.

If possible, we recommend you use the school account via the wireless network: eduroam.

See also:

- How to login through my school account: eduroam?